GEM[®]

Gem[®] is a trademarked variety from Sunview Vineyards, a three generation family farm located in Delano, California.

Sunview's grapes are cooled with a quickness unrivaled in the industry. Rapid cooling immediately after the grapes are harvested maintains freshness while also adding shelf life to our grapes.

This bright red, seedless grape has a noticeably elongated shape with high Brix and a very favorable flavor.

Sunview's Gem are available this year from August until November to both domestic and international markets.

AVAILABLE IN: High Graphic Pouch Bags
